CoBank Again Named To “World’s 50 Safest Banks” List By Global Finance Magazine

DENVER (September 10, 2015) — CoBank, a leading cooperative bank serving agribusinesses, rural infrastructure providers and Farm Credit associations throughout the United States, has been named to Global Finance magazine’s list of the world’s safest banks for a fifth consecutive year.

Global Finance, which covers the financial services industry, publishes the “World’s 50 Safest Banks” list annually. Banks are ranked using a methodology that includes total assets and an evaluation of long-term ratings from major rating agencies. CoBank was first named to the list in 2011.

“Financial strength is a critical part of the value we offer to our customers,” said Robert B. Engel, CoBank’s chief executive officer. “Our customers operate in industries and markets where conditions can be both volatile and unpredictable, and they look to CoBank to provide them with dependable credit and financial services in good times and bad. We’re very pleased to have earned this distinction for the fifth year in a row, as we believe it reflects our bank’s consistent and sustainable commitment to sound stewardship and our mission in rural America.”

The ranking will be published in the November issue of Global Finance. Further information is available at the magazine’s web site at www.gfmag.com.

About CoBank

CoBank is a $107 billion cooperative bank serving vital industries across rural America. The bank provides loans, leases, export financing and other financial services to agribusinesses and rural power, water and communications providers in all 50 states. The bank also provides wholesale loans and other financial services to affiliated Farm Credit associations serving more than 75,000 farmers, ranchers and other rural borrowers in 23 states around the country.

CoBank is a member of the Farm Credit System, a nationwide network of banks and retail lending associations chartered to support the borrowing needs of U.S. agriculture and the nation’s rural economy. Headquartered outside Denver, Colorado, CoBank serves customers from regional banking centers across the U.S. and also maintains an international representative office in Singapore.
